The cast also includes Bhumika Chawla, Vinod Vijayan, Nedumudi Venu and Srinivas Avasarala among others. Masoom 4 movie is the fourth movie to be based on the novel of the same name by author T. Padmanabhan. The first was Masoom (1983) starring Mammooty in the lead role. It was remade in Tamil as "Indru Poi Naalai Vaa" (1984) which went on to win six awards at the 33rd Filmfare Awards South. The second film, released in 1996, starred Mohanlal and Renuka pairs together for the first time in this film, which was also remade in Kannada as "Munjaneya Manja" (1997). The third film was released in 2007. Masoom 4 Movie Story revolves around Mallan (Tovino Thomas), who is an orphan who lives with his uncle (Nedumudi Venu). He meets Divya (Ashokan), a middle-class girl and falls in love with her. They get married to each other, but after some time, Divya's father comes to know that Divya is pregnant by him. Things become worse for Mallan when his uncle, who has always supported him all through, turns against him. He comes to know that he has come from a lineage of thieves and has been made aware about his future too. The rest of the story deals with how Mallan deals with his past and the future.

The project was announced on 12 July 2017 and principal photography began on August 2017. The film also features a song "Manikya Malaraya Poovi" taken from the movie Oru Vadakkan Selfie, composed and sung by Shaan Rahman, which was released on 27 Oct 2017 along with an announcement about the movie's release date of 29 November 2017. It is said to be a tribute to late Gopi Sundar. Upon theatrical release on 29 Nov 2017 at Chennai, the film received positive reviews from critics and audience for its script and performance. Baradwaj Rangan of The Hindu rated the film 3 out of 5 stars, saying that it is a "re-imagining" of director's own story, could have been "more interesting" if the makers had focused more on story. Sudhir Srinivasan of The News Minute rated the film 3 out of 5 stars, saying that the film lacks comedy and its "overall impact could have been better". Ritiika Handoo from Zee News given good review to the movie saying, "Masoom 4 is a perfect family entertainer for this season." The soundtrack was composed by Premkumar.
